Nice man, maybe have a look at the srs document and choose a subheading that you feel comfortable completing?

Monday

Azman Istiaq Asfi Monday 5:54 pm

I have done the 3rd part of srs document. Do give it a check.

Benjamin Hatfield Monday 7:28 pm

Nice one Azman I'll have a look soon.

Wednesday

Azman Istiaq Asfi Wednesday 4:43 pm

Guys wanted to be clear with one thing. Don't we need to do the scrum board to show our progress? Also will we be doing the Architectural Diagram tmr during class or have you guys already started that?

Do we put all user stores into sprint one? or not yet

Nah I've put all the ones that are achievable into sprint 1. I think we leave the rest out.

2:43 pm

Okay yep that makes sense

Usually, it gives you an explanation of what you are doing in that section. I would check it for you, fam, but I'm just at work

Ben, I got an email saying you assigned me something. Is it something I have to do today, or something later?

Benjamin Hatfield Thursday 6:18 pm

Who is doing What:

- Jannik to do Architecture Diagram
- Everyone to add there own user stories to github
- Ben to do wireframe UI
- Okasha to do minutes for today, and add these to github repo in appropriate spot
- update all tasks in github that have been finished
- Everyone to go over and finish the SRS doc

User Stories - Everyone do 3 each and attach your name - then we can cut down from there if needed:

Ben Hatfield:

User story 1:

As an EventHub administrator, I want to view any event so that I can monitor and review event content.

Acceptance criteria:

1. Given I am logged in as an admin, when I open the event management panel, then I can see a list of all events on EventHub.
2. Given I am logged in as an admin, when I select an event, then I can view all of its details (title, description, date/time, location, organiser, etc.).
3. Given I am not an admin, when I attempt to access the event management panel,

Thanks for sharing this Jannick For those not in the meeting, if we could get our users stories completed by tomorrows class it would be really helpful for organising the next steps in the assignment and getting feedback from Dale. I have just updated mine now if you want something to build off.
